

DEAR DAIRYVILLE

KEEPING OUR COMMUNITY INFORMED OCTOBER, 2009 ISSUE
 * SPECIAL FESTIVAL EDITION ****

Hard to believe that summer is gone and fall has arrived. In June it was great to see many of you at our Annual Pancake Breakfast. We had a tremendous turnout and it was so fun to get to visit with each of you. Perhaps the best thing about being a member of the Dairyville Community Club is the sense of community that is here and enjoying the friendships that are made making our community

From Our President's Desk

a better place to live.

For many in Dairyville, fall is the busiest time of the year with the rush of getting all of the crops harvested. In addition to those who farm, it is also a busy time for all of the volunteers involved in putting our 12th Annual Dairyville Orchard Festival together. Many people have worked diligently for months in preparation for yet another wonderful festival. The goal, as always, is to raise money for scholarships for our students to be able to pursue a higher education. It is somewhat mind-boggling that our festival, in twelve years, has contributed over $86,000 to our local students. This year the Orchard Festival will be held on October 17, 2009, and I hope that you will not only come, but also bring a friend along too so they can experience our true sense of community. Each day I feel privileged to live in such an amazing country and such a marvelous community. God bless America and Dairyville too!

Join Us At The 12th Annual Dairyville Orchard Festival

Saturday, October 17, 2008 from 10:00a.m.-4:00p.m. at Lassen View Elementary School (10818 Hwy. 99E, Los Molinos). The admission and parking are free!

The Festival will open at 10:00a.m. with our local Cub Scout Pack 154 carrying the American flag around the festival grounds as the "Star Spangled Banner" is sung by Kellie Rodriguez.

A presentation by the Young Marines will follow. This is a very special time and we know that you will be touched by this presentation. Following the opening, you will be able to enjoy all that the Festival has to offer.

The Festival will have items of interest for everyone. There will be numerous arts and crafts booths where

The 12th Annual Dairyville Orchard Festival is just days away and we are ready to celebrate with you! We would like to invite you, your family, friends and neighbors to join us at the Festival on very talented individuals will be selling their handmade artwork, jewelry, furniture, candles, clothing, linens, scrapbooks, painted gourds, soaps, wooden toys, framed pressed flowers, cut metal decor, tole painted items, wooden kitchen and decorator items, etc.

The Agricultural Commodities Store, which will be located in the center of the festival grounds under the big white tent, will offer for purchase fresh local agricultural products such as walnuts, almonds, pecans, pistachios, plums, figs, etc. Sunbursts, seasoned walnuts, and chocolate-dipped prunes will also be available. Free samples of some items will be offered as well.

After you have made your commodities purchase we encourage you to visit the Agricultural Education area where you will be able to learn more about the local crops and our scholarship recipients.

This is an event for all ages. The Diaper Derby will take place at noon in front of the stage. The Lil' Farmer's Corner will have free games and activities for the children. A bounce house will also be available for the kids to jump and play in. Tehama County 4-H clubs will provide a petting zoo and educational displays..

The California Highway Patrol, Tehama County Sheriff's Department and Cal Fire will have informational booths at the Festival. They will be happy to answer any questions that you may have.

A variety of live local entertainment will take place on the stage all day including: The Debadoo Dance Company, The Jonathan Skillman Family Fiddlers, , Loosely Strung (Bluegrass Fiddle), Patti Anglia & Terry Kirby (Easy Country) and Linda Roland & Friends. Raffle prize winners will be announced from the stage throughout the day as well.

A large display of orchard and farm tractors and equipment will be on display at the front of the school grounds. Antique tractors and engines will also be there. The owners of these pieces of machinery will enjoy showing you how their equipment works and will answer your questions.

Author Alley will, once again, feature several local authors and their publications. All of these authors will have their books available for purchase and signing. Ruth Myhre, from Corning, will be present with her new children's book entitled, Chase-N-Cows. Adam and Celeste Deem, authors as well as illustrator Ryan M. Lamb will be on hand with their book entitled, Saving Li'l Smokey. Glenn Cox, of Los Molinos will be bringing his book, The Way The Game Was Played. Author George Keck of Corning will be there with his book Smarter Than Einstein? Braedon Kuts, author of All In A Night's Dream will also join us with books on hand.

Oh yes, you won't want to miss out on the freshly prepared food! Come hungry and enjoy delicious tri-tip sandwiches, authentic carnitas, Oriental chicken salad, baked potato, and/or a hot dog. Quench your thirst with ice cold soft drinks, bottled water and lemonade. Hand-held foods will also be available for a very reasonable price.

While at the Festival, take a few moments to bid and re-bid on items at the Silent Auction. A variety of wonderful donated gift baskets, certificates, and other items will be on hand for you to bid on. There will also be a table filled with raffle prizes at the event. Buy your tickets throughout the day for a chance to win win one or more of the many raffle prize items that will be on display.

The younger students from the SERRF program at Lassen View School are in the process of making corn husk dolls for Festival decorations, and the older SERRF students will be assisting the committee with decorating for the Festival. Several Lassen View School classrooms will also display the scarecrows that have been entered in the Scarecrow Contest that is sponsored by the Dairyville Community Club, Inc. Be sure to check out all of these items specially created for the Festival.

Festival t-shirts (see coupon on page 4), raffle tickets, and Community Club memberships will be available at the Information Booth for purchase.

Come and spend the day at the Festival. You're sure to have an incredible time enjoying the sights and sounds of the day. We hope to see you there!
